Evaluation:

These programs are designed to meet the needs of those students in the New Summerfield ISD who are at risk of dropping out of school. Programs that are not successful will be modified in the 2020-2021 school year. If modifications do not improve a program's success rate, the program will be discontinued.

New Summerfield ISD
2019-2020 State Compensatory Education
Summary of Program Effectiveness

New Summerfield ISD will continue to offer supplemental programs next year as the district believes strategies such as one-on-one tutoring, reading assistance, summer school and counseling services help increase academic achievement among students who are at risk of dropping out of school. New Summerfield ISD will monitor and modify supplemental instructional programs as needed to ensure higher success rates in the 2020-2021 school year.
